Bloomington Community Arts Commission Grant Application

The Bloomington Community Arts Commission (BCAC) exists to stimulate appreciation of the arts by all citizens of Bloomington and its surrounding area; to encourage, sponsor and develop artistic activities and educational programs; and to foster an environment that promotes the arts and their enjoyment. The commission cooperates with various institutions, groups and individuals with similar goals or pertinent artistic projects of community-wide interest.

As part of its programs, the BCAC has funds available to support arts projects that fulfill this mission to the community. Grants may range up to $1,000, helping artists and arts groups fund expenses related to educational programs, project materials and publicity. Please request only as much as you need for specific items in your budget.

If your project falls within the above stated goals of the commission, please submit this completed application along with the following information:

- A description of the project
- Any visual materials illustrating the project, if available
- Project goals
- Timeline
- Detailed budget, including all expenses and revenue
- List of any grants/donations already received or expected
- Plans for publicity
- An explanation of how the project is inclusive of the community
- Previous reviews of work or events, if available

Please remember that presentation counts—professional, clear, thorough applications will be given preference. Applications not providing all of the above information will not be considered for grants.

Grants are reviewed twice yearly. The deadlines for applications are April 1 and October 1 for reviews in May and November. Applications must be for upcoming events. We will not award grants for events that have already occurred, so plan ahead. You may be contacted by a commission member to discuss your project in more detail.
